PRESS RELEASE

London, January 3rd, 2017

2016 Year End Promotions

- Pantheon Appoints Chief Financial Officer to Partner
- 14 Professionals Promoted Across the Firm

Pantheon, the global private equity, infrastructure and real assets investor, has promoted Robin Bailey, Chief Financial Officer, to Partner alongside the promotion of 14 professionals worldwide.

“These promotions recognize the breadth and depth of talent we are proud to possess across our firm. The success of our firm and our clients depends on the commitment and dedication our professionals make every day and I congratulate everyone on their thoroughly deserved promotion,” commented Paul Ward, Managing Partner.

Paul Ward acknowledged Robin Bailey’s “considerable commitment” to Pantheon and his role of CFO to which he was appointed as part of Pantheon’s succession planning for Robert Amis, who retired at the end of December 2016. Robert Amis joined Pantheon as Chief Operating Officer in 2010 and subsequently became a member of Pantheon’s Partnership Board.

In addition to Robin Bailey’s promotion, Pantheon announced six promotions within the global investment team, including two at Principal level, Charlotte Morris and Sara Lonergan. Eight additional promotions were made in the Operations, Client Services, Global Marketing and Legal & Compliance teams.

The year-end promotions close a very busy 2016 for Pantheon during which the firm has expanded its global staff with 55 new hires across its global offices and departments.

- Robin Bailey, promoted to Partner, Europe. Robin is Pantheon’s Chief Financial Officer and is responsible for finance, tax and accounting globally. Before joining Pantheon in 2010, Robin worked in the Investment team of Ipex Capital, an early stage venture capital company based in London. Prior to this, he worked for Deloitte in its London Corporate Finance Advisory practice. Robin qualified as a Chartered Accountant with Arthur Andersen and has a BSc in Economics from Warwick University.
